Website

In February, we were delighted to announce the launch of our new website.

The new Eden site contains integrated social media for our Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.

The SEO friendly website means new visitors every day. We currently receive over half a million impressions a month.

Visitors to the site can check out "Recent Events" at our various venues, see what we've done and what people are saying.

Visitors can also keep up to date with "Our News" page, which features a weekly blog that includes all our venues news.
